Welcome to Wild Apricot

Welcome to the new membership capabilities of our Wild Apricot site! Wild Apricot (WA) is an Internet-based membership service that Pittsburgh Society of Artists has subscribed to that enables PSA to manage membership information, website, and other functions that benefit PSA members, including the following:

- Each member can maintain his or her own information. This makes it easy to make sure addresses, email, and phone numbers are always current.
- Each member can edit their own privacy settings for each item (phone, address, etc.) in their profile to be:
 - Visible by all visitors to our website (everyone)
 - Visible only to other PSA members
 - Visible to no one but the member
- Each member can upload images of their artwork to a personal online gallery. For those of you who have wanted your own website to showcase your work, this could be a way to that end without additional expense to you!
- Members will receive automatic email reminders for dues renewals or exhibit deadlines.
- Applicants for membership to PSA can use the WA online new membership application for screening in (no need to print and mail).
- Select PSA administrators and officers can mass email the members or subsets of the members.
- PSA can post programs and meetings as "events", and allow online event registration, reducing the amount of work for the event registrar

This document presents how to use the members-only functionality of Wild Apricot.

Note that Wild Apricot provides a separate website (pittsburghsocietyofartists.wildapricot.com) that seamlessly serves as an alias for our www.pittsburghsocietyofartists.com website. In fact, www.pittsburghsocietyofartists.org and www.psaquild.org also direct the user to our new website.

To use the member-specific aspects of Wild Apricot, including editing your member profile, you need to enable "cookies" in your internet browser. Here are the instructions from the Wild Apricot help information:

Users cannot interact with Wild Apricot widgets if their browser is set to block third-party cookies. By default, Safari blocks third-party cookies, while Firefox and Chrome accept them. Internet Explorer blocks third-party cookies by default but allows users to accept them from Wild Apricot and other sites. Some firewalls or browser plug-ins may affect your browser's cookies settings. For more information, see this link: <http://windows.microsoft.com/en-us/windows7/block-enable-or-allow-cookies>

Another example of what the public would see if a member would choose to allow more fields to be seen by the public (“Anyone”) is shown to the right. In this case, the member is choosing to show more information about herself in an effort to promote her artwork.

This link sends artists who want to join the Pittsburgh Society of Artists to a page that details the submission requirements, the dates for the next new-member screening, and a link to register for the screening.

Member News

Wild Apricot provides a news blog visible to the public that we're calling Member News. This is a tool for members to post information about upcoming art-related events they are involved in, and for others to comment on it.

To access the PSA news blog, click the Member News link in the banner. The most recent blog posts are displayed. Only logged-in members can create new member news entries, but the public can view and comment on the entries.

Go to the section Posting Member News for details on posting to Member News.

After you have logged in, from the PSA website Home page, click the View Profile link. The My Profile page displays. From this page, you can click the links to view the following:

- My directory profile link – displays your profile as logged-in members would see it. The public ("Anyone") would see only the fields you want them to see based on your privacy settings. This screen is display-only. To make changes, click Edit Profile.

- Privacy menu option – For each profile field, shows who can see the information in our Directory list. This screen is display-only. To make changes, click Edit Profile.

There are three aspects to your profile that you can edit:

- Privacy – For each field, you can adjust who can see it:
 - Anybody (anyone on the Internet)
 - Members (only logged-in PSA members)
 - No access (no one other than you and the PSA administrators can see the information).

Make the changes you want, then scroll to the bottom and click Save or Cancel.

- Email Subscriptions – This is where you make changes to the types of emails you'd like to receive from PSA. We recommend you leave the settings as they are (checked), meaning you'll receive important emails from PSA.
